Unaware, we pass "Him" By

On life's busy thoroughfares
 We meet with angels unawares -
 But we are too busy to listen or hear,
 Too busy to sense that God is near,
 Too busy to stop and recongnise
 The grief that lies in another's eyes ,
 Too busy to offer to help or share,
 Too busy to sympathise or care,
 Too busy to do the good things we should,
 Telling ourselves we would if we could...
 But life is too swift and the pace is too great
 And we dare not pause for we might be late
 For our next appointment which means so much,
 We are willing to brush off the Saviour's touch,
 And we tell ourselves there will come a day
 We will have more time to pause on our way...
 But before we know it " life's sun has set"
 And we've passed the Saviour but never met,
 For hurrying along life's thoroughfare
 We passed Him by and remained unaware
 That within the very sight of our eye,
Unnoticed, the Son of God passed by. Helen Steiner Rice.

Lord, Thank you for all the opportunities you have offered us of meeting,
 You in other people.
 Forgive us for not availing of those opportunities to bring Us, closer to you.
 Help us during this Christmas season to find time to rest and become revitalized in body, mind and spirit , but also be aware of All those in need around us and help wherever we can Amen.

Congratulations to the Scoil Mháthair Dé who performed a wonderful Christmas Cantata, "Nativity Story" in the Church of the Assumption on Thursday last.
